THE GREAT VICTORY IN PENNSYLVANIA. GREGO'S REPUBLICAN PLURALITY OVER $6,000-AGAINST A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Nov. 4.-Complete figures from including Philadelphia and Allecareful estimates for the other other show a plurality of 56,008 for Gregg (Rep.), for Auditor-General, and 53,888 for Morrison (Rep.), for State Senator. The propesition for a constitutional convention was over-whelmingly rejected, only ten counties in the State giving majorities in its favor, and in the fortytwo counties from which complete figures have been received on the vote on the question there is a net majority of 154,590 against holding the convention. The counties giving majorities for the convention are Bedford, Carbon, Columbia, Elk, Fayette, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Pike, Warren and Wayne.

THE ELECTION IN THE BAY STATE. RUSSFAL CHOSEN BY A REDUCED VOTE-REPUB-LICANS SUCCESSFUL WITH ALL THE

OTHER CANDIDATES. [BY TRIEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Boston, Nov. 4.—For the first time since the origin of the Republican party Massachusetts has re-elected a Democratic Governor. Governor Russell plurality. By an unfertunate and unnecessary amendent to the Australian Ballot law last year, it became necessary to count the votes twice before giving them out to the newspapers. The result has not been sailsfactory to anybody. The vote has not been, in most cases, more carefully counted and the public has been kept in suspense for a long time.

The result was a surprise to most people. Even the Democrats did not expect to most people. Even plurality. The campaign has been an unusually energetic, carnest one. Governor Russell's plurality last year over Bruckett was 9,053. This year he will have about 8,000. The returns are not all in yet, but those that are wanting will not change the figures essentially. It is not surprising that Russell increased his plurality in Boston, but it was significant. Journal" says: "There are some features of the vote in Boston that will not escape the attention of thought ful men. One is that the Democratic cause, this year as before, was weakest in the most intelligent communities. Take the Second Ward, the home of hundreds of our substantial merchants, the site of Museum, our Public Library and many of our greatest churches. Both of the parties increased their vote in this ward this year, but the Republican growth was by far the larger. Take another, the Twenty-fourth Ward, in Dorechester, which has been alit up rapidly in recent years by the younger sional and business men, a population renowned throughout the entire city for its exceptional intelligence and progressiveness. Republican vote exhibits a very heavy increase, and the same thing is true of most of the precincts of the Twenty-first Ward, in the highlands of Roxbury. "Of course, no ward and no section of the city has any monopoly of intelligence, but it is understood by all well-informed men that in the three wards which we have mentioned, the voters, as a whole, are exceptionally capable of forming right views of public questions.

They read the newspapers. They read books. They have been favored by the particular attentions of th Tariff Reform League, and have been deluged with free-trade literature. Yet it is in precisely the regions where the most streamous exertions have been put forth this year in behalf of the Democratic cause that it has proved most unpopular, and this has happened, as we have said, among people who are well repared for a thoughtful study of the questions of the day, and well prepared to reach intelligent conclusions. In the long run, the opinions which our most intelli gent people form are bound to be the opinions of "Mr. Allen was the only nominee on the Republiin ticket who failed of election, and Governor Russell was the only nominee of the Democratic party who was elected. The others fell off more than 6,000 behind the head of the ticket. The Republicans have increased their majority in the Legislature, and Governor Russell will be held in check by a Republican Council as he was last year."

The Legislature shows decided Republican gains.
The Senate, with five districts to be neard from, stands twenty-three Republicans to twelve Lemocrats, and the missing districts will probably eige one Repubstands twenty-three Republicans to twelve Lemocrats, and the missing districts will probably give one Republican and two Democrats, with two doubtful. Last year the Senate was a de between the parties. The House at present stands 115 Republicans and fifty-dight Democrats, with sixty-seven members lacking. Last year the complexion of the House was 140 Republicans and 100 Democrats. Speaker Barrett is reelected by twice his last year's plurality. The Executive Council will probably stand seven Republicans to one Democrat. Governor Russell this morning, in speaking of his election said: "It means that Massachusetts is carneally for tauff reform on the line of free raw maierial, which has been the chief issue in this State. It also means that she is firmly and aggressively for a sound currency."

means that she is firmly and aggressively for a sound currency."

Colonel Allen, when asked by a reporter what he had to say in regard to the result of the election, said:

"The contest is closed, its anxieties are over, and the people have declared their will. Personally I am entirely content to accept the result, and I return to my business with no personal regrets. I wish to thank my friends for the kindness and confidence they have shown me, and I as especially grateful to those who have worked so earnestly for my election. I have an abiding faith in the policy and future of the Republican party and I have no doubt of its success in the National election of 1892.

The vote of Boston is 36,512 for Russell, and 22.

967 for Allen, which gives the Democrats a plurality in the city of 13,525.

THE RESULT IN NEW-JERSEY. THE DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY ON JOINT BALLOT

WILL BE THIRTY-SEVEN.

REPUBLICAN GAINS IN KANSAS.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY LOSING GROUND-MOST OF THE REPUBLICAN JUDGES ELECTED.

Kansas City, Nov. 4 .- The election returns from heard from any of the counties in the western half of the State. Almost all of the countles in the eastern portion have made partial returns. Such returns as have been received would indicate that the People party has lost its prestige. Out of sixty-five counties from which returns have been received, six will probably elect a People's party ticket, and that, with the exceptions of Marshall and Kingman, at greatly reduced pluralities. These counties show gains of 300 and 200, respectively. The other counties will elect straight Republican or fused Republican and Democratic tickers. Of the ten District Judges to be elected. the Republicans have probably elected eight.

As there were no State officers voted for, and or account of fusion of the Republicans and Democrats or Democrats and People's party in many of the counties, it is impossible to make any satisfactory com-parison with the vote of last year.

GOVERNOR BOIES RE-ELECTED.

RETURNS SLOW IN COMING IN-THE REST OF THE TICKET STILL IN DOUBT.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 4 .- After the great battle of yesterday the smoke is clearing away. The Republicans find themselves defeated, and the Democrats are heginning to celebrate their victory. Governor Boles arrived in Des Moines to-night from Waterloo. The streets are packed with excited people, shouting for Boies. At "The Register" office complete returns from eighty-three counties have been received. Up to 8 o'clock there is a net Democratic gain of 806. If the gain is kept up to night in the remaining sixteen counties, his plurality will be in the neighborhood of 8,000, a gain of 2,000 over two years ago.

The returns on the other State officers are scattering. If Boles's plurality is 8,000, as it now seems to be, the rest of the Democratic ticket will be elected by small pluralities. The Republicans have some hopes for Van Houten, Lieutenant-Governor, who is running ahead of Wheeler in the precincts that have reported. They also claim Saldn (Rep.) for Superintendent of Instruction. The Democrats assert that their whole State ticket is elected. It will take fuller returns than can now be obtained to decide the fate of the ticket below Governor. Dubuque, Nov. 4.-Returns coming in to-day show almost uniform gains for Boles. From all the counties heard from the indications are that he will have 8,000 to 10,000 in the State. The balance of the Democratic State ticket is probably elected with a pemocratic State ticket is probably elected with a majority of 3,000 to 4,000. The Senate is Democratic by two majority unless the Democrats should lose in districts somewhere not yet reported. In the House the Republicans will probably have four majority, as they have gained a member each in the counties of Audobon, Decatur and Boone. The coetest just closed was the sharpest and most active ever held in the state. The total vote is 425,000, a larger one than has ever been seen before.

Waterloo, Nov. 4.—Governor Boles has spent the day quietly at his home in receiving the returns. Advices from his friends, based on returns from sixty-five counties with estimates with the remaining thirty-four, places Boics's majority at between 0,000 and 10,000. As to the Legislature, the Governor is advised that the Senate will stand twenty-five Democrats, twenty-four Republicans. The members of the House are about evenly divided between the two parties, with the exception of five members elected by the Union Labor and Farmers' Alliance parties.

NEBRASKA GIVES A REPUBLICAN MAJORITY. Omalis, Nov. 4 .- The returns from the city and State are still meagre, but careful estimates give Post (Rep.). eandidate for Supreme Court Judge, 6.000 majority over Edgerton (Ind. Peo.). The entire Republican city and county ticket is elected by majorities ranging Omalia City and Douglas County will probably give Post (Rep.), for Supreme Court Judge, a plurality of 5,000. Bemis, for Mayor, is probably elected by 3,000 majority. The Democrats elect their County Clerk and Treasurer.

A REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMAN IN SOUTH DAKOTA. St. Paul. Nov. 4.—Reports from the Congressional election in South Dakota are very slow in coming in, but enough has been received to indicate the certain election of Jolly (Rep.) to Congress by a good vote. The vote for Smith (Ind.) is much below what had been claimed and conceded for him. The Democrats did little campaign work, but in many counties their vote exceeds that cast for the Independent or Alliance candidate. Jolly's plurality will probably be from

3,000 to 5,000. Yankton, S. D., Nov. 4.-Information received at the headquarters of the Democratic Committee in this city is to the effect that South Dakota will give Jolly (Rep. a majority of about 3,500 over Smith (Ind.), and that Woods (Dem.) is defeated by a larger plurality than was Quigley (Dem.) last year. Yankton County gave Jolly a plurality of 166.

"This means a reapportionment of the legislative seats and a long-continued reign of Democracy," said Governor Hill to-day, in claiming the Legislature. Governor Hill to-day, in claiming the Legislature. It tried to affect a jubilant air in talking about the result, but it was apparent to close observers that he was not sincere. It means his retirement to the back seat. One State officer remarked to-day that the Tammany Tiger would be brought to Albany winter and taken to Washington next winter. This remark was overheard by another, who said: a licky thing for the Democratic party that Flower's majority in New-York City was kept down. Had the Democratic ticket received the plurality predicted by Tammany there would have been no living for the Democrats of the Interior. Tammany would have instead upon having everything; might even have got the idea of nominating Flower for President."

A RECEPTION TO MR. FLOWER AT WATERTOWN. Watertown, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The citizens of Water-town gave a grand reception to the Hon. R. P. Flower on his return from New-York to-night. On the arrival of the train the fire gongs and bells of the city were rung continuously for half an hour, and the city was ablaze red fire and fireworks. Residences and business places were illuminated and decorated. Mr. Flower was met at the train by a delegation from the Jefferson Club, which first named him for Governor, consisting of Mayor Porter, the Hon, D. G. Griffin and others, and was drawn by six white horses in a big parade through the city's principal streets. At the residence of Mr. Flower a few words were spoken by the Mayor, and were responded to very briefly by Mr.

DEANE RE-ELECTED SENATOR.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 4 (Special).-The vote as between Archibald Rogers (Rep.) and John A. Vandewater (Dem.), for Assembly, in the IId District, is so close that it will take the official canvass to decide it. The Republicans claim Vandewater has only 4 majority and that defective returns may change it so Rogers will be elected.

The contest as between Deane (Rep.) and Osborne (Dem.), for Senator, has been settled. Official figures show that Deane has 137 plurality.

SENATOR DONALDS N RE-ELECTED. Ballston, N. Y., Nov. 4 (Special).—Conator Harvey Donaidson (Rep.) believes that this Senate District has re-elected him by a plurality from 90 to 120. The figures cannot be given accurately until complete returns are received from a number of remoelection districts in Hamilton County. Official figures and estimates give pluralities as follows: For Donaldson, Saratoga 600, Fulton and Hamilton 100; for Hoyt (Dem.), Montgomery 98, Schenectady 502. This makes Donaldson's plurality about 100.

COOK COUNTY SOLIDLY REPUBLICAN.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Complete returns from every pre-cinci in Cook County show that the entire Republican ticket was elected yesterday. Not a man seems to be missed. The Republican candidates for County Commissioners in the city district appear to have received majorities varying from 7,000 to 14,000, Mr. Eckhart, Republican candidate for Drainage Trustee, re ceived 5,000 more votes than any other candidate for that office. The only Democrat elected was Lyman E. Cooley, Drainage Trustee, who comes in as the minority representative. It is one of the most aweep-ing Republican victories ever known in Cook County and is largely due to continued dissensions in the Demo-eratic ranks. A significant feature of the election is that nearly every man indersed by the American or "Know-Nothing" association appears to have been

CABINET OFFICERS' VIEWS.

SECRETARY FOSTER HAPPY OVER THE RESULT IN OHIO-THE PRESIDENT'S ALLEGED

FEELING ABOUT NEW-YORK. Washington, Nov. 4.-Cabinet officers are chary of expressing freely their opinions on the result of the dections, but three of them to-day made conservative statements for publication.

Secretary Foster returned to Washington from Ohio shortly after noon, and was at his desk in the Treasury Department within a couple of hours thereafter. He is happy over McKinley's victory. To a reporter he said that the result in Ohio was a comdete vindication of the protection principle. sickinley bill," he said, "has worked out its own salvation. We were brave enough to fight fairly and squarely on the tariff, and the result proved that the people are satisfied with the bill. The Democrats nade an effort to have the fight made on State issues. but we were bound that the real issue should be faced. Protection and honest money were vindicated. Camp-bell was badly crippled by the Democratic policy on the silver question, but that did not cause nearly so great loss of votes by him as his free trade speeches did;

and we shall elect a Republican Senator too."
"That means that Senator Sherman will succeed himself in the Senate, doesn't it, Mr. Secretary 1" asked me of the gentlemen about Mr. Foster's desk.

"Yes, I suppose so," was the reply. Secretary Rusk declares that the elections went as he expected, and he was not at all surprised. The only comment he had to make was that he would be favor of restoring the tariff on hides, as the Massamusetts shoe manufacturers, for whose benefit hides were put on the free list, had voted with the Demo He believed it a good idea to make them pay more for their hides.

Attorney-General Miller said he thought the Republicans had reason to be gratified at the victory in Michigan and South Dakota, he said, Congressmen were elected on these issues, and if in New-York a fight had been made on National issues the result would have been a victory for the Republicans.

have been a victory for the Republicans.

"The Star" says to-night:

"The President objects to be quoted directly, but in a general way states in conversation that the only place where National issues entered into the campaign was in Onio, and that, therefore, the election of Mr. McKinley is particularly significant and gratifying. He expressed disappointment at the result in New-York, but intimated that he had expected it from the moment that the campaign degenerated into a fight with Tammany as an issue. He thinks that if National issues had been kept to the front the result would have been different."

MR. GIBBS SAYS HE IS ELECTED. Frederick S. Gibbs, the Republican candidate for assembly in the XIIIth District, will not concede the ection of James H. Southworth, his opponent. Mr. fibbs asserts that he is elected by a majority of two voices and will insist upon a recount. He will contest the alleged election of Mr. Southworth in the courts on the ground that the returns from one of the election districts of the Assembly district were wilfully falsified by Tammany Hall inspectors by changing the figure "158" to "153." FILING STATEMENTS OF ELECTION EXPENSES.

The election-expense statements of William Franklin terome, candidate for State Senator from the VIIIth District on the County Democracy ticket, and George R. Simpson, candidate for the Assembly on the County Democracy ticket from the VIIth District, were filed In the County Clerk's office yesterday. GLANCES HERE AND THERE.

Two business men who have long been warm friends met in a restaurant the other day. One of them had a gloomy look and his friend finally asked him what the matter was. It was the old story. If is son had fallen in love and wanted to marry a girl whom he had not known a year. The father was opposed to the match, but he did not like to interfere. tell you a story," said his friend, "and then you may agree with me that it is of no use to try to acone's falling in love. Everyone does it differently. I knew a man who met a woman one summer a good many years ago. He saw her perhaps only half a dozen times. He was a poor man, hard-working and ambitious, and was seeking his fortune in a big city, say New-York. When his scant vacation was at an end he went back to his work and pegged along. In two years he had saved enough money to feel able to afford another little vacation. He hadn't heard a word from that woman in the meantime, but he sacrificed a very large part of his vacaion fund in getting to the town where she lived. He had only three days to stay there and before he went back to the city he told the girl that he loved her, that he had waited two years for the oppor tunity to fell her, that their lives ran in such diff channels that he might not see her again for two veurs more. He took her promise back with him.

little romance is so simple and pretty that it seems worth the telling.

J. M. Hill, the theatrical manager, told a story on himself the other day. An actor came to him and applied for an engagement. There did not seem to be much need of him, but his demands in the way of salary were very modest, and the manager said "Well, you may consider yourself engaged. to him: I guess I can find something for you to do. Come around on Tuesday and I'll try you." The newly engaged man looked at the manager questioningly "How about a contract?" he asked. "Oh, never "Oh, never mind a contract; we'll have a verbal contract." There was a look of mild reproach in the eyes of the man as he answered sorrowfully; "Mr. Hill, the last time I made a verbal contract I drew a verbal salary." The writer was reminded the other day, upon meeting one of the best-known college players in the country that the footil seeson, with its magnificent sport and sailly its wearisome wrangles is at hand again. ball This season opens a new era in football, Harvard baying beaten Yale, but not Princeton, last year, and the Orange and Black men having gone down before the cleven from New-Haven. One of is, too much them is big, naturally vigorous and strong. The other is not tall by any manner of means, and is very slight. The giant of the two took it into his head that evening that his fragile friend was suffering from shattered nerves, and perhaps he was. He insisted on taking the meurotic man to the hospital. In vain his companion pleaded, argued and protested. He even wept, but the other was firm in his determination to see him safely housed in a hospital ward. He made the beseecher get in a car with him, and uptown they started for the hospital. In the car the big man began to get drowsy. When they alighted at their street he was extremely sleepy. When they entered the hospital he sat down in a chair and went to sleep. Two hours later the small man was met downtown by some friends. He wore a melancholy smile. "Where's X—-?" some one asked. "Oh, I guess he's in the hospital," an swered the other gloomliy. "In the hospital;" every one cried. "Well, you see, he took me up there to put me in, but when we got there he was too sleepy to do anything. It did not seem fair to have all that trouble for nothing. I was willing to go in, but he couldn't put me in, so I put him in and left him there. Sorry for him, too; he's such a good fellow," and he smiled sadly. to get drowsy. Did you ever hear of a man who was a victim of the oyster-habit? The writer was in an uptown cafe the other evening, when a gray-haired, full-chested, bigframed man came in and ordered Blue Point oyster. He ate a dozen, ordered another dozen, then a third dozen, hesitated, as if in doubt, paid his check and went open, but the waiter said: "Oh, that's nothing. He comes in here every night for raw oysters. Sometimes he eats three dozen, sometimes four dozen. He's what I call an oyster-eater. I don't believe he eats anything else."

Speaking about ovsiers, they have an oyster in St. John, N. B., which makes a New-Yorker shudder when he looks at it. It's about as big as a turkey and about as palatable as a green palmetto leaf. An American on his first visit in St. John asked in a restaurant if he and Colonel R. Carvallo Ovrego, who was attempting ould get Blue Points. "Haven't any Blue Points." was the answer. is a good deal better. Blue Points aren't to be mentioned on the same day with them. They're big, there's something to them—something that you can appreciate."
Well, they were big, but so is a whale: New-Brunswick oysters do not appeal to the taste of New-Yorkers.

event, as well as the victories recently gained by the Revolutionists, or Constitutional party. Extensive preparations were made, triumphal arches were erected buildings were decorated with bunting and illuminated a. m., at noon and at sunset each man-of-war fired a salute of twenty-one guns. The authorities took ever precaution to prevent disorder during the festivities and succeeded admirably. It was feared that the re cently discharged soldiers and the rough element gen erally would take advantage of the occasion to plunder and rob.

The soldiers of Balmaceda's army are being returned to their homes, and so are many of the Opposition army, who were brought here from the North. Three regiments of these troops were on the point of revolting on the morning of September 21, be made to them had not been fulfilled and their demands to return to their homes had not been compiled with They marched in a body to the rallway station, and were only dispersed by President Montt, of the Junta Government, who appeared before them on horseback, accompanied by the Minister of War and a number of aides He addressed them in a patriotic speech, and, amon other things, said:

"What you demand will never be obtained by force If you wish my life, here it is; take it." All applauded the valiant leader of the Revolution and quietly returned to their quarters. The election of Senators, Deputies and Presidential Electors is fixed for November 18, and it is expected that everything will run along smoothly.

A telegram sent by a correspondent of "The New York Herald" on the day that the San Francisco sailed for Callao, saying that Balmaceda had escaped in her, was reade public a few days later. It caused great indignation against Admiral Brown and the Americans, as it was stated in there papers here that Admiral Brown had sent a suit of saler clothes on shore, and had afterward sent for Balma bine-jacket on a drunk.
